

eResearch

Australasia 2015

eResearch 2015 is pleased to announce the following sessions will be available for live streaming during the conference next week.

Tuesday 20 October 2015

09:30 - 10:30

- Deep Mapping to Data Sculpting: Inside Omnispatial Archives

Professor Sarah Kenderdine, Deputy Director, NIEA and Director, iGLAM Lab (Laboratory for Innovation in Galleries, Libraries, Archives and Museum)

13:30 – 13:55

- Fuelling the Knowledge Economy: the Librarian as Castalyst

Professor Linda O'Brien, Pro Vice Chancellor (Information Services), Griffith University

Wednesday 21 October 2015

09:00-10:00

- Dr Simon Hodson, CODATA

10:00-11:00

- Professor Peter Hunter, NZ, Bioengineering Institute

Thursday 22 October 2015

11:25-12:25

- The Data Deluge and the Fourth Paradigm – eScience Ten Years On (part 1)

Professor Anne Trefethen, CIO, Oxford e-Research Centre

12:25-13:25

- The Data Deluge and the Fourth Paradigm – eScience Ten Years On (part 2)

Dr Tony Hey, Senior Data Science Fellow, eScience Institute at the University of Washington

3 day streaming passes are priced at $195 inc GST.

To register click here